Book of the Names of the Dead

Christian communities remember the names of their dead, in prayers of intercession, and on anniversaries. The names of those who are called saints are chanted in litany as we approach Baptism and other central moments in the life of the Church. Especially in November, from All Saints Day until Thanksgiving, many parishes give a place of special honor in their church to the book containing the names of the dead. Parishioners may write the names of those they wish to remember in this special book at the back of each church.

OLPH Thanksgiving Baskets

We will be making and delivering our Thanksgiving Baskets at OLPH November 12. Please bring your items to the Parish Hall that morning before Mass. Items we need are baked goods, nuts, fresh fruit, fruit cups, lotions etc. Please no canned vegetables.

Scouting For Food Program is back!

St Ann's Church Troop and Pack 4008 are collecting non-perishable food items the first two weeks in November - to support families in need here in the local community. Please bring any donations to the church on Sunday Nov 5 or 12 or drop off in the Parish office with Karen during the week.

Christ the King Sunday

November 26 is the end of the Liturgical Year, Cycle A. It is the Sunday of blessing all Communion Ministers, during the weekend Masses.

Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe

On Tuesday, December 12, we will celebrate the Feast of Our Lady of Guadalupe, the Patroness of the America's, with a Mass at St. Ann at 6pm, followed by dinner in the St. Ann Parish Hall. Please join us in honoring Our Holy Mother.
 "Am I not here, I who am your mother?"

Abuse of Minors and Vulnerable Adults

The Archdiocese of Oklahoma City through its programs, organizations and events, has numerous daily contacts with many minors and vulnerable adults. It is, therefore, important that all Archdiocesan Personnel, clergy, seminarians, religious, employees and volunteers, protect the rights of children and vulnerable adults and be alert to the possibility for child abuse and abuse of vulnerable adults. Under Oklahoma State law, all individuals MUST report an incident or suspicion of sexual abuse of a minor (person under 18 years of age) to the civil authorities immediately. The Oklahoma Department of Human Services has established a statewide abuse hotline for reporting: 1-800-522-3511. This number is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. If you have reason to believe a child is in immediate danger of harm call 911. For the safety of children and vulnerable adults and the healing of victims, the Archdiocese of Oklahoma City provides an Abuse of Minors and Vulnerable Adults Pastoral Response Hotline for reporting the abuse of minors and vulnerable adults (in the past or presently) by a member of the clergy or other church personnel: 1-405-720-9878. The Archdiocesan Victims Assistance Coordinator, a licensed professional counselor, will respond to calls to the Archdiocesan Pastoral Response Hotline. A report to the Archdiocese does not relieve the individual of the duty to report child abuse to civil authorities as required by Oklahoma State Law. In Oklahoma, failure to report child abuse is a misdemeanor punishable by law.

A Walk Through the Mass Series:

Part three: Meal sharing

The Eucharistic Prayer.

The long prayer which follows brings us to the very center of the Mass and the heart of our faith. While the words of the prayer may vary from Sunday to Sunday, the prayer always has this structure: 1) We call upon God to remember all the wonderful saving deeds of our history. 2) We recall the central event in our history, Jesus Christ, and in particular the memorial he left us on the night before he died. We recall his passion, death and resurrection. 3) After gratefully calling to mind all the wonderful saving acts God has done for us in the past, we petition God to continue those deeds of Christ in the present: We pray that we may become one body, one spirit in Christ.
